Ohimà

Forsix Design

Ohimà is a rectangular table with a classic and essential design. It features an aluminum and technopolymer frame with legs at each end, suitable for supporting even outsize tops whilst assuring excellent stability. Suitable for use in covered outdoor settings, Ohimà has a top in marine plywood with a rounded edge, elegantly lending itself to completing and setting off to a tee even the most important of installations.

Ohimà, tavolo rettangolare dal design classico ed essenziale, è caratterizzato dalla struttura in alluminio e tecnopolimero a gambe contrapposte, adatta a supportare con eccellente stabilità piani di notevoli dimensioni. Adatto all'uso in ambienti protetti esterni, Ohimà dispone di un piano in Multistrato Marino con bordo arrotondato, prestandosi con eleganza a completare ed essere protagonista di atmosfere di prestigio.
